GUIDED TOURS

- 🕒 All year round
- 📍 several locations in the city

MANDATORY REGISTRATION, limited number of people (10 to 30 people)

🕒 3 p.m.

Coimbra City Council provides countless guided tours. They all have different subjects with the intent of summoning local, national, and international ephemerides, as well as promoting and broadcasting the historical, cultural, literary, ethnographic, social and natural heritage, hence contributing towards a better knowledge of Coimbra's identity. Some of the subjects proposed by the Municipality until September 2019 are: Academic Traditions and the Song of Coimbra, visiting the high streets of the city, focussing on the repúblicas (student housing) and academic experiences; From College to Court, with a visit to Palácio da Justiça ("Palace of Justice"), focussing on historical and cultural aspects; Eça de Queirós' Coimbra and Miguel Torga's Coimbra, both by visiting areas in the city, which are connected to these writers focusing on their biographies and literary references to the city.
